The Terms of use are regulated and interpreted in accordance with the Bulgarian national law. If it so happens, that any clause of the Terms of use is contrary to the law, invalid or in any way annulled because of changes in the provisions of the Bulgarian national law, than it has to be interpreted separately and to be treated as annulled from the Terms of use. In this case the rest of the clauses of the Terms of use remain in force.

The Terms of use are written in Bulgarian and in English. Regardless, that there may be translations in other languages, you agree, that in case of a conflict between the versions the Bulgarian version will have precedence over any translated version
